- a) Understanding and application of the rules;
- b) Ability to give objective and structured verbal critiques to an audience;
- c) Etiquette on the field;
- d) General knowledge of the German Shepherd Dog and the judging thereof.

4.5.2 At least four (4) dogs must be present at a trial where a candidate is doing a practical examination for the day. If the trial has fewer dogs, the examination for the day will be regarded as an exercise and will not be counted towards the qualification.

4.6 Appointment of Training Test Judges

4.6.1 The name of a candidate who has successfully fulfilled all the obligations as set out in section 1 will be presented to the relative Judges Committee for final approval.

4.6.2 SV/WUSV judges who emigrate to South Africa, become fully paid-up bona fide members of the Federation and are of good standing, will automatically become members of the Federation Training Test Judges Panel, provided they inform the Chairman, in writing, of their intend to continue judging.

4.6.3 Judges from other recognised bodies, who join the Federation as bona fide members, may also become Federation Training Test Judges. Such persons must apply in writing and include a CV to the Chairman of the Training Test Judges Committee. The applicant's name will be presented to the Training Test Judges Committee. Additional requirements may be mandated for final accreditation.

4.7 Maintaining Status as a Training Test Judge

4.7.1 If a member of the Federation's Training Test Judges Panel has failed to renew his membership, all privileges and rights as a member of the Training Test Judges Panel shall cease. If the membership fees remain unpaid for longer than one (1) year, the member's name will be removed from the Training Test Judges Panel.

4.7.2 All applications to the Training Test Judges Committee must be made through the Administration.

- 4.7.3 Members of the Training Test Judge's panel must partake and pass refresher courses as determined from time to time by the Training Test Judges Committee.
- 4.7.4 Judges must write a short resume on their activities for the past year. These resumes should also include impressions and ideas to improve the quality of trials and competitions. They should be addressed to the chairman of the Training Test Judges Committee and forwarded not later than January the following year.
- 4.7.5 Judges must ensure that they continue to comply to the minimum qualifications for aspirant judges as set out above. If the minimum qualifications change, existing judges on the panel have 3 years to achieve those qualifications.
- 4.7.6 Judges who fail to maintain the requirements within this section may be removed from the panel by the Training Test Judges Committee.
- 4.7.7 All Training Judges who have not had an appointment for a period of 2 years will automatically be placed on the "Retired" Judges Panel. Provided they are younger than the 70 year old retirement age, they may be re-instated to "active" on completion of a refresher course, content of which will be determined by the judges committee from time to time.

4.8 Re-Appointment of Training Test Judges

- 4.8.1 The relevant Judges Committee may re-appoint Judges that have been removed from the panel if they again comply with the regulations.
- 4.8.2 The relevant Judges Committee may set additional requirements before reinstatement if the committee deems it necessary.
