

Temporary Membership Application

Temporary Membership may be applied for by non-members of the German Shepherd Dog Federation of South Africa to allow them to attend and/or participate in a specific event. The membership is only valid for the day of the event. This application should be accompanied by the prescribed fee(s).

Conditions:

1. Approval of temporary membership will only be valid for the specified period and event and will not grant any other rights or privileges as contained in the Constitution of the GSD Federation of South Africa, other than participation in the event concerned.
2. Any person banned from the Federation is precluded from applying for temporary membership.
3. Applicants that are currently members of other recognized authorities must provide proof of such membership and their good standing within that organization.
4. Applications will only be considered for handlers during Endurance Tests, Breed Shows and Breed Surveys.
5. Applicants are precluded from entering their own dogs.
6. Noncompliance with the rules and regulations of the Federation may lead to Disciplinary Action.
